SUBJECT: Brandishing a Firearm Arrest

Blacksburg Police arrested a man Sunday afternoon for brandishing a firearm in a Blacksburg apartment complex.

Blacksburg Police responded to a complaint that a man had brandished a firearm in the Sturbridge Square apartment complex shortly after 12:30 pm today.

Police investigated the incident that allegedly began as a dispute over money. During the course of their investigation, Police recovered a .38 caliber revolver and $100 cash. Police arrested Corry D. Nelson, 25, originally from New York, for brandishing a firearm and possession of a firearm with an obliterated serial number without further incident. Nelson was transported before a Montgomery County Magistrate and remanded to the Montgomery County Jail where he is being held on no bond. The investigation into this incident continues.

At this time, it is uncertain if this incident is connected to yesterday's shots fired into two residences in the Sturbridge Square apartment complex, but Police are definitely exploring every avenue in these two incidents.
